Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

The Helping Hand Reading Award is awarded to children who read or listen while someone else reads:

- 1. 1 Samuel 1-3 from a simple, modern translation of the Bible
- 2. A Bible story book or a book about Jesus
- 3. A book on health or safety
- 4. A book on family, friends or feelings
- 5. A book on history or missions
- 6. A book on nature

Provide children with several good books to choose from, which will help them to understand and apply the things they are learning this year in the Busy Bee classwork.

Be sure that the books are:

- 1. True to life. The books must present an accurate picture of reality. It must not be overly simplistic, sentimental, or exciting.
- Lasting value. A good book helps the child to understand God, human nature, or the things of creation without appearing to be preachy and contrived.
- 3. Positive Morality. Evil and sin are recognized as such, and receive their just reward. The good should be upheld as the model and goal for the children.
- 4. Enjoyable. The book should be one that the adult enjoys reading. (If the adult does not enjoy it, it is highly unlikely that the child will—or should.)
- Developmentally appropriate. A good book will fit the child's level of reading ability, sophistication, and interest.

Helping Hand Bible Story Chart God Works Water God A Promised God's Land for with His Calls a Cleanses People God's People the Earth People Disobey People

Suggestions for Parents and Leaders

Background Information

Beginning with a recognition of the love and watchcare of God at the Busy Bee level, Adventurers have learned to recognize the persence of evil in the world and in their own lives. They are learning to escape from evil by receiving forgiveness and power through Jesus Christ.

The goal of the Helping Hand requirements is to provide children with a reminder of the beginning steps of salvation and to encourage them to continue in the Christian life even though it is often hard.

The following basic concepts are found in each of the stories and verses:

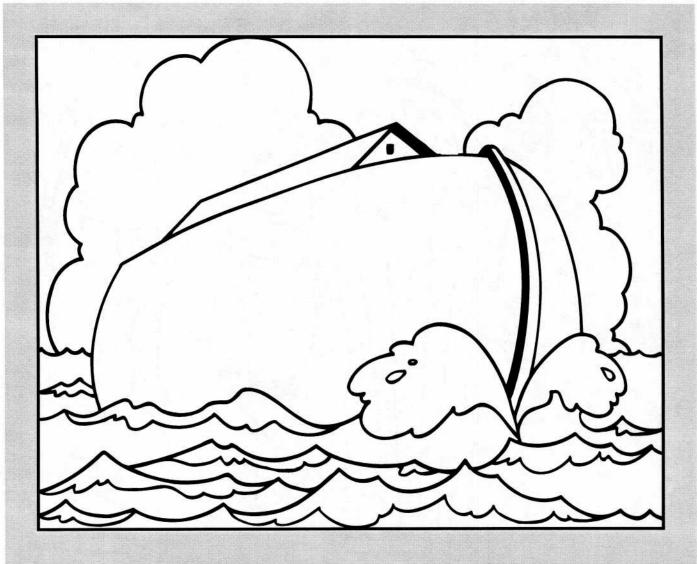

- I want to obey God and escape from evil. I recognize the destructiveness of evil and am sorry for my part in it.
- 2. I can give my life to Jesus, and He will give me a new clean heart. When I give Him my life He makes me a part of His redeemed family and helps me obey Him.
- 3. I do my best to live for Him, and He is always there to forgive and help me when I ask. I love Him because He has given me eternal life. I want Him to continue to forgive and help me.
- 4. I am becoming the person He wants me to be. I will be persistent in letting Jesus help me grow up to be just like my Father. He promises that I will if I trust and obey Him.

The Bible Story Chart may be used in three different ways:

- Place the pictures on a large wall story chart, adding each new picture as you tell the story. The children may refer to this chart as they work on their own chart(s) and as they learn about other stories from the Bible and history.
- 2. Provide the children with a practice activity by making available a blank chart and the pictures, stories and labels provided on the following pages. The children may set the blank chart on the floor and place the pictures, stories and labels in order on the chart.
- Children may also color the pictures and use the stories and labels to create their own story charts or story chart booklets.

In the first presentation, use the Bible story chart to give an overview of the battle between good and evil and to show how the Helping Hand stories fit into that battle.

- Review the sections of history covered previously: creation and the fall; Jesus' life and death; the Christian church; and Jesus' second coming and heaven. The pictures and labels describing these events may be placed on the story chart in black and white.
- 2. Color the new Helping Hand pictures and add them to the story chart as you briefly describe how they fit into God's plan of salvation. Briefly discuss the stories and pictures from these levels.

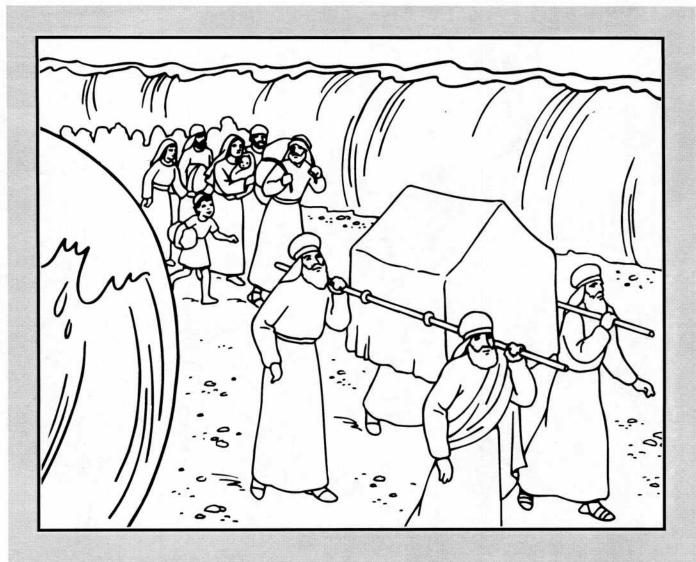

Water Cleans the Earth

People became so disobedient that they were destroying everything. God decided to wash away all the sin and evil and try again. He saved everyone who would listen by asking Noah to build a speical ark for them.

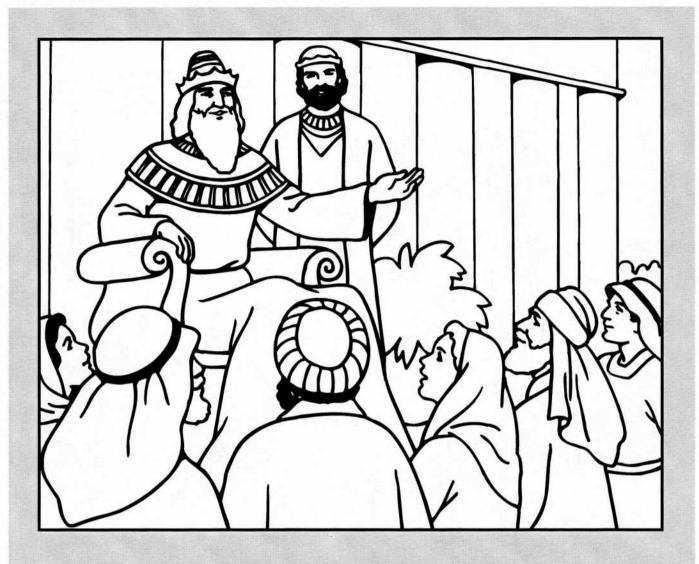

God Calls a People

God decided to choose a special group of people to teach the world about Him. He called Abraham and Sarah to a new country and made them the "father" and "mother" of His new nation.

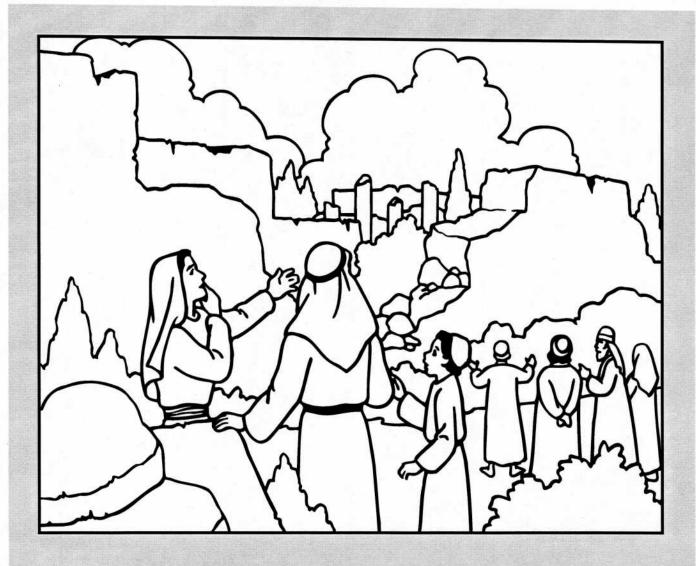

A Promised Land for God's People

God rescued His people from slavery just as He had promised. He brought them to a beautiful "Promised Land." He told them how to live so they would be happy and healthy.

God Works with His People

God's people, Israel, did not always trust Him but He continued to help those who would listen. David, the "shepherd king", loved to tell of God's mercy and justice.

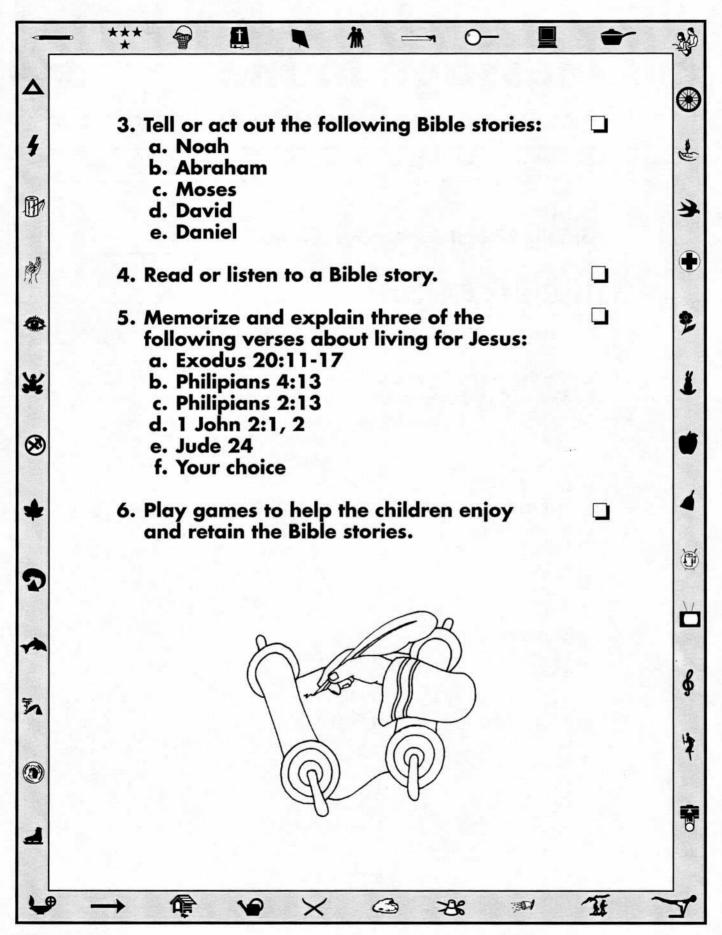

God's People Disobey

Israel refused to obey God. He finally let them be taken captive, hoping they would realize their mistake. Some listened to God and returned to Isreal, but they never became what God had planned.

His Message to Me

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

Your child needs your example and leadership as he tries to form good devotional habits.

You can help by:

- · Having your own daily quiet time with Jesus daily;
- · enthusiastically sharing some of the inspiration and
- insights you receive during your quiet time;
- · leading out in family worship daily;
- helping your child choose a wise time and place for his quiet time;
- being a part of your child's quiet time until he is able and eager to continue on his own.

1.	Pray that God will help you make a good choice.
2.	Name one thing in your life that you know God would like to help you improve. Tell exactly what change you want to make.
3.	Use your concordance to find and read what the Bible has to say about this. Write a text that promises God will help you.
4.	List steps that will help you make this change.
5.	Memorize the promises you wrote. • Every morning, ask God to give you a new heart and ask Him to help yo want to do what is right. • When you are tempted, repeat your promise, then choose to do or think about something else.

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

Background Information

Our society often leads children to believe that they are not really talented unless they are good in school, sports, or the arts. Tis is misleading, because there are many areas in which the children may excel. Each is a gift from God and is given for a special purpose.

Children may have:

· Physical talents: Athletic or work ability (strength, coordination, speed, or agility); pleasing appearance; working wit one's hands.

- · Intellectual talents: Remembering and understanding, writing, planning and organizing, decisionmaking.
- · Interpersonal talents: Speaking, sensitivity, humor, leadership, making friends.
- · Artistic/creative talents: Art, music, poetry.

I Can Make Wise Decisions

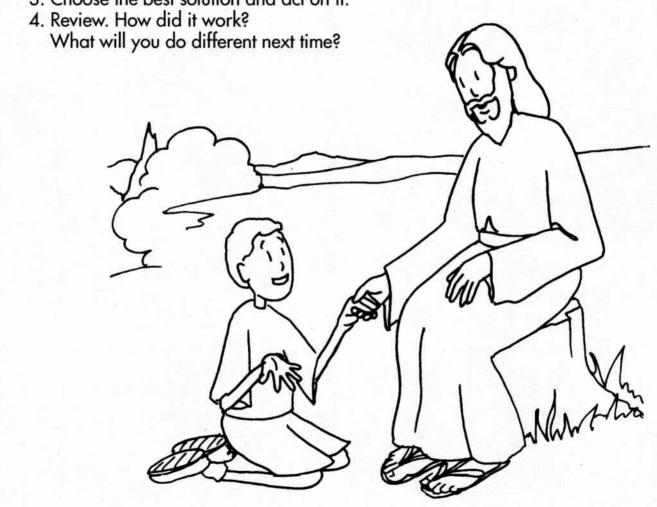

A. Learn the steps of good decision-making.

The Steps of Good Decision Making

Talk over each of the following with Jesus.

- 1. What is the problem?
- 2. What are several possible solutions? And what might be the consequences of each solution for myself and for other people?
- 3. Choose the best solution and act on it.

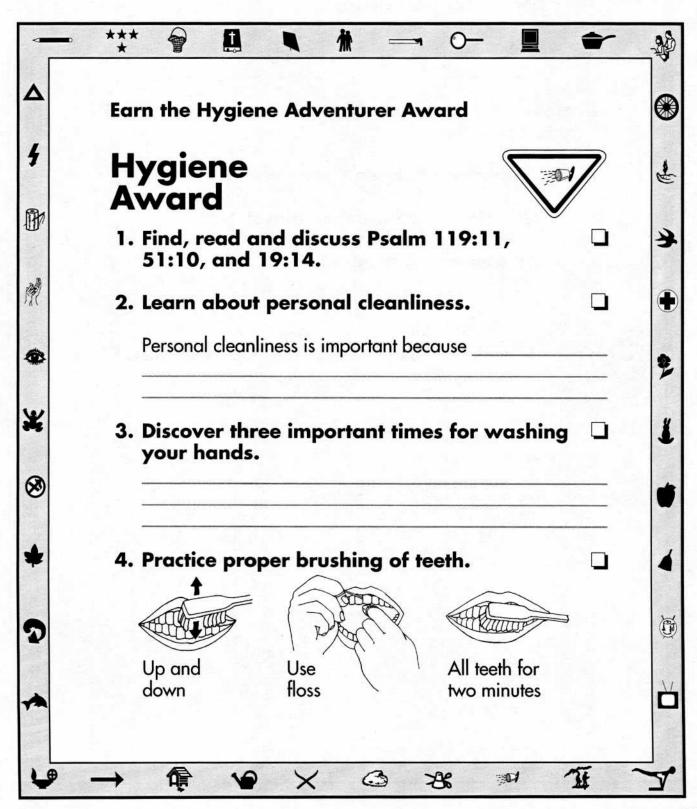

B. Use them to solve two real-life problems

 - I am a sinner. Everyone does wrong and is a sinner, thus everyone needs salvation because sinners will die forever (Rom 3:23).
 - God sent Jesus to die so I wouldn't have to die forever (John 3:16). Then He rose again as my Saviour (1Cor. 5:3, 4). When I receive Jesus, all my sins will be forgiven (Isa. 1:18; Ps. 51:7-11; 1 John 2:1, 2).
 - Salvation is a gift God gives me. I must personally ask Jesus to be my Saviour
 - (John 1:12). God hears me when I pray.
 - If I have accepted Jesus, I have become a new person, one who doesn't want to do wrong because I love Jesus and Jesus loves me (John 3:3-7; 2 Cor. 5:17).

- I can be sure that I am saved when I have asked Jesus to be my Saviour (John 3:26; Heb. 13:5). Because I am sinful, I will still make mistakes. But I if I confess my sins to Jesus, He will forgive me and remove my guilt completely (Jer. 31:34). God wants me to confess to others who are hurt by my actions (1 John 1:9) and make restitution to them (Luke 19:8), and then totally turn away from sin (John 8:11).
- 2. Read and discuss with an adult four of the following Bible stories on conversion/ salvation:
